For the past week there have been 143 carts in market.

At the First Baptist Church to-morrow night (Sunday), after the sermon the ordinance of baptism will be administered.

IMPROVING.—Eddie, the little son of Mr. Turlington, who fell from the window of a two-story house a day or two ago, is steadily improving.

ONLY 978 persons have listed their taxes up to date, which is not one-fourth. The time is limited to the 20th instant, and delinquents had better take warning.

STAGE ACCIDENT.—We interviewed a gentleman this morning, who was one of the passengers on the stage, between Wadesboro and Charlotte, that was overturned a few days ago, and which the horses ran away with afterwards, completely demolishing it. He says that there were seven in the stage including the driver, and that five of them were more or less hurt, the driver and one of the passengers escaping uninjured. Mr. Williams, our informant has a very ugly scratch upon his right cheek, and his spine was injured to some extent. Mr. Thomas Leak seems to have been the worst sufferer, he having had his left arm broken in two places, and receiving internal injuries of a grave character.

QUITE cool to-day.

VERY few vessels in port.

VERY fair market this morning.

THE planking of North Water street continues.

SIXTY reynards were captured this last season around Wilmington.

THE chain-gang are to work over in Brooklyn to-day, improving the streets.

MR. F. M. KING has been appointed hy his Excellency, a Notary Public of this city.

SOME of our street crossings are in an almost impassible condition, just after a heavy rain.

AN eagle was shot near Hilton yesterday afternoon, that measured five feet from tip to tip.

HANDS are busily engaged preparing to lay a pavement on Second, between Market and Princess streets.

WE are glad to learn that Mr. R. L. Sellers is some better to-day, though he is still confined to his house.

THE steamer North State will be down next week, and the Murchison will be laid up for repairs on Monday.

TREMENDOUS freshet in the Cape Fear river. At Fayetteville yesterday morning the water had risen forty-five feet, and still rising.

SNOW.—There have been heavy snow storms in Kentueky and Tennessee, which accounts for the cool weather we are now experiencing in this section.

THE debris on the corner of Market and Second streets has been cleared away, and the erection of a three-story brick building will at once be begun.

THE sailor who was shot a few days ago is at the Poor House, where he receives all attention requisite, He is said to be recovering from his wounds rapidly.

NEW LODGE.—D. D. G. M. Andrews of Cape Fear Lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F., will organize a new lodge of this Order at Elizabethtown, Bladen county, in a few days.

SABBATH SCHOOL schollars, remember that all of you who intend to participate in the Grand Charity Concert, on Wednesday evening next, are requested to assemble in the Session Room of the First Presbyterian Church, this afternoon at 4 o'clock for practice.

Two women, one white and the other colored, are serving out their time of sentence on the street force. They are both cleansing windows and scouring at the City Hall to-day. Better keep them at this, than putting them to work upon the streets.

IT has been said "That music hath charms to soothe a Savage" and a friend adds "To split a rock and burst a cabbage." It is unnecessary for us to tell our readers that our friend is quite a poetical genius, of that fact, we feel assured they are already convinced.

STILL AHEAD.—The Star man tells his readers this morning, that he has heard of a cow only twenty-one months old, that gave birth to a calf. If Bro. Muse will call at the POST he can hear of a cow that at the age of sixteen months, gave birth to a full size, well fomed calf. "This beats the Star's cow all hollow."

COUNTERFEITER.—Antone Freeman, a deserter from the German Barque Claudia, who was arrested last night for passing counterfeit money, is confined in jail, where he will remain until his confederates are captured, if possible, when he will be tried before Justice Cassidey U. S. Commissioner.

CONFINED.—Wm. Cole was arrested and brought before the Mayor this morning; charged with not having paid his regular monthly license tax as huckster, for the past twelve months. The Mayor ordered him to settle up at once, or give bond for his appearance before Court Monday morning; both of which he refused to comply with, threatening the officials with the law at the same time. His Honor ordered him locked up in the guard house until Monday, in the mean time he will be released, should he consent to give bail.

Mayor's Court.

His Honor W. P. CANADAY, Mayor, presiding.

ONLY two cases appeared for trial this morning, they were continued over until Mondy morning.

SOME.—What a city we can boast of when our road to the Sound is completed, cotton factory established, water works in order, an iron span placed where "Boney Bridge" now stands, a steam ferry at Market dock, two ice houses in our city, a new post office, an elegant Market house, the street railroad south of Market street, a city park, our harbor improved, and to cut short our musings, a complete reorganization of our police force. When, oh when shall we enjoy all this?

TRODDEN DOWN. A Novel. By Mrs. C. J. Newby. This is the fourth volume of the new, cheap and popular edition of the celebrated novels by Mrs. C. J. Newby, now in course of publication by T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia. "Trodden Down" is a bright and pleasing story, pure in tone, and commendable in spirit. The plot is dramatic, and the manner of its telling, spirited. "Trodden Down," is issued in a large octavo volume, price Fifty cents, and is for sale at Heinsberger's Live Book Store.

WHERE, OH, WHERE!—This morning near 12 o'clock we descried a tremendous crowd assembed on the sidewalk in front of a dry goods store, on Market, between Front and Water streets, and upon enquiring the cause, we were told that a clerk in the store and a countryman had had a rough and tumble combat, the clerk coming off victorious. So dense was the crowd, that without exaggeration—as our readers know full well, that is something a local is never given to—a red bug would have found it impossible to elbow his majesty through, but as usual, of late, no policeman was on hand, although, when we arrived on the spot, the fight had been over for some time, and the participants had fled. About an half an hour after everything had become calm, one of our valiant and ever-alert officers, like an old cow's tail, always behind, with a "biled" shirt on, and that full of gold or brass studs, was seen coming around the corner, but upon his arrival on the bloody field, he found that the birds had flown. The question thrt suggested itself was, where, oh, where! are the police? Answer—some suspended, and the rest of them home in their "little beds."

CONCERNING the case of Miss Phillis Williams, who, as it was stated in the Star and other papers, to have been lying under a spiritual influence from the 3rnd to the 10th instant, without eating or drinking, except an egg and a little water. I fully acknowledge all this to be true, and, withal, I acknowledge the final resurection of the above, and giving a full statement of her whereabouts while under religious influence. She stated, on her resurrection, that she had been under the influence of the Spirit of the Holy Ghost for said time, and is now able to give publicity to the world of what she received while under said influence. It is as follows: On Friday, the 3d inst., under the influence of the Gospel, preached by Rev. Isaac King, I felt the power of my sins, which caused me to fall to the ground, and while there, my spirit left temporarily this mortal body, and sought a place for a while among the spirits, both above and below, and while there I said things unuterable; things pertaining to this life, and also of that which is to come, and after seeing all of the above I was caused to yield to that power which controled, not only me, but the whole world, (which power I agree is the power of the living God) which no man can deny, wrought upon me a powerful influence, under which I publicly confess I received the remission of my sins, for which I feel thankful to our God, who made us all, and is able to do for us more abundantly than we are able to ask or worthy to receive. Now I, Phillis Williams, am a redeemed soul from hell, and washed in the blood of the Lamb of God. I thank God that I did stay under the influence of the Spirit from Friday 3d to Friday 10th, for by it I received eternal salvation, through the Son of God. And would that all men could say, even as I can at this time, that after staying under the influence of the Holy Spirit for eight days and nights, the Lord has redeemed them from eternal destruction in hell. With me all is well, and hope my deliverance may enhance the salvation of many others. A curious case.

THERE have been slaughtered and brought to Market the past week—beeves, 27; hogs, 16; sheep, 9.

RESUSCITATED.—The colored girl, Phillis Williams, aged about eighteen years, a native of Duplin county, of whom it was stated fell in a trance on Friday, April 3d, revived yesterday morning about 10 o'clock. We are informed of the particulars by a responsible person, and give them as they were told to us. She informed her friends that something wonderful would take place, that she would dwell in Heaven for a time, and that on the 9th day she would revive, which she did on yesterday. She has lain prone on the floor of Ebenezer Church, on Seventh, between Orange and Ann streets, tasting neither food nor drink, until yesterday afternoon she was prevailed upon to drink a cup of coffee; and although she has taken nothing for the sustenance of life for eight days, she to all appearance is in the enjoyment of good health, and to look at her one would be astonished to think such a thing possible. Upon reviving she jumped several feet high, and left the church, since which time she has been going to and fro, visiting her friends and acquaintances, until at last she called upon the pastor of the church, and completely surprised him to see what a wonderful change had been effected in her talk. She, in company with some eighteen others, will be immersed at the deck, foot of Queen street to-morrow (Sunday) afternoon at 3 o'clock.

WILMINGTON COTTON MILLS—ORGANIZATION OF THE COMPANY.—In accordance with advertisement, the stockholders of the Wilmington Cotton Mills met at the bank of New Hanover at 4 p. m. yesterday for the purpose of organization.

On motion of Col. J. W. Atkinson, Mr. E. Kidder was called to the Chair and Mr. Norwood Giles appointed to act as Secretary.

By request, Mr. W. A. French made some remarks relative to the cost of construction and equipment of the factory.

It was then suggested by Dr. A. J. DeRosset, that in lieu of entering into details, the meeting proceed to the more important work of the election of a Board of Directors, to whom shall be left the minor details.

Col. J. W. Atkinson moved that Mr. D. McRae and the Secretary be appointed to ascertain the number of shares of capital stock represented at the meeting, with a view of adopting a Charter and set of By-Laws for the government of the Company.

It appearing that (693) six hundred and ninety-three shares were represented in person, being a majority, the meeting was declared regularly organized.

Mr. W. A. Wright then read a Charter and a set of By-Laws, which were voted on seriatim and adopted.

On Mr. W. A. French's motion, the meeting proceeded with the election of seven Directors, which resulted in the election of the following gentlemen: Edward Kidder, A. J. DeRosset, F. W. Kerchner, J. H. Chadbourn, Donald McRae, S. N. Martin, W. A. French.

No other business appearing, the meeting adjourned.

The Board of Directors held a meeting after the adjournment of the stockholders' and elected Donald McRae as President and Wm. A. French as Vice-President, and resolved to to call in an installment of five per cent. on the capital stock, to be paid at the office of the President on the 25th inst.

NEW YORK, April 11.

A dispatch from St. John's, N. F., in relation to the accident on the sealing steamer Tigress, gives the following report of the Captain of the steamer Panther, the vessel which brought the intelligence to St. Johns: "On the 3rd inst., the Panther was in long. 51, deg. 15, min. west lattitud 50 deg. 22 min. north on her return to St. Johns. The lookout reported a steamer, apparently moving only under sail, and as we approached her it was discovered that she had her flags at half-mast, subsequently, and after signaling her I ordered a boat to be lowered and went on board myself, when I discovered her to be the steamer Tigress of Polaris fames. Her Captain and chief officers were on deck when I got on board. I was then informed that on April 2nd, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, the vessel was shaken all over by a terrific explosion of a boiler, which created quite a terror and confusion as the escaped steam completely enveloped every compartment below and in consequence all steam facilities had been destroyed, and they had then been under sail against a head wind for twenty-four hours, and when I reached the deck of the Tigress I observed that a number of men were employed on carpenter's work, making up and nailing together a number of rough pine wood boxes and asked the commander what they were for, and he said they were designed for receiving the bodies of the unfortunate men who had been killed by accident on the day of the explosion.

Said the Captain of the Tigress to me: The weather was dreadfully cold and rough, a breeze blowing and heavy swell on. A number of men had gone below after their watch and had turned in on the top of the boiler for the sake of the warmth; 19 of the crew were reposing in this way when the crash occurred, and some of them were literally scalded beyond recognition. The consternation was fearful. The two engineers were on duty at the time and both were killed.

We left there on the afternoon of the 3rd, making for land under sail, and promised to report the disaster immediately on our arrival. I did not ascertain the names of the men as all the officers of the Tigress appeared in great grief and could give but few particulars.

The dispatch further says, since the Captain's statement was made yesterday, it was learned that the Tigress had arrived off the coast and had put into the Bay of Robert's, where, in all probability, she will land her dead and wait for assistance.

After the Polaris matter had been disposed of, the Tigress was fitted out for seal fishing. She made a trip and was returning south at the time, with her "catch," when the terrible disaster occurred.

The particulars of the shooting of young Breckinridge, are as follows: He and some companions had been drinking during the day, and a seemingly playful dispute arose between Breckinridge and Anderson, about the possession of an umbrella belonging to Breckinridge. This was finally quieted and Breckinridge asked the party to drink; while they were leaning over the bar Anderson suddenly drew a derringer and placing it at Breckinridge's head fired, the ball penetrating the brain.—Anderson fled.

Correspondence solicited from our friends in all parts of the State, on topics of general interest. Political news and reports of crops are especially desirable.

Superintendant of Public Instruction.

The Republican Executive Committee which met in Raleigh, on the 9th inst. nominated Thomas R. Purnell, at present State Librarian, for the office of Superintendant of Public Instruction. An excellent choice, which will undoubtedly receive the support of a majority of the people of North Carolina.

Mr. Purnell is well known in this city, being a grandson of the late Gov. Dudley. This recognition of the progressive spirit of Republicanism will prove a tower of strength to the party which supports their candidates.

SIMULTANEOUSLY with the discovery of new and richer mines of gold in our State, comes the information that Arkansas is found to be rich in this precious metal. The reports, however, from the latter State, read like there was a speculative scheme a foot intended to take in some unwary persons. But in our State there is no doubt that valuable discoveries have been made.

A Slight Mistake.

The latest issue of Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper contains a leading editorial upon political parties in the United States. Among other things the writer holds that the war was the result of a difference of opinion in relation to the rights of the States. The war, he says, was the triumph of Federalism, and the defeat of the State's rights dogma.

It does not require much acuteness to discover an error in this. Men do not go to war for opinions' sake often. They may use them as a mask, but an interest in property is generally at the bottom of it. It was to perpetuate the institution of slavery that the South withdrew from the Union and precipitated the conflict by firing on Sumter.

Such discussions, however, are not productive of much good. The calm judgment of those who will come after the present, and perhaps the next, generation will settle this question. The best evidence that slavery was is that the slave-holding States were arrayed together together on one side, and the non-slave-holding on the other. Had political opinions as to the powers of the general government brought about the war, would have actually and truly been a civil war.

ANOTHER batch—the third, we believe—of the murderous Bender family of Kansas, has been arrested in Utah territory. These people seem ubiquitous.

A special dispatch to the New York Times, dated Washington, April 6th, says: The Senate has given its vote at last for inflation. The bill which it passed to-night provides for an issue of $400,000,000 of legal-tender notes, which is $18,000,000 more than is now in circulation, and an increase of $46,000,000 of national bank notes. The entire increase of paper circulation over the amount of circulation prior to the panic is $90,000,000. The whole amount authorized is $800,000,000, exclusive of $50,000,000 of fractional currency, which is within a $100,000,000 of the largest amount which the most extravagant of the inflationists demanded at the beginning of the session. The bill amounts practically to a free-banking law without restrictions as to redemption on a basis of $400,000,000 of legal-tenders; for it is not supposed that within a twelvemonth at least the limit of the $46,000,000 increase will restrain in any manner the issue of bank currency to those who will deposit the amount of bonds required for security. The majority by which the bill was finally passed was five, and the same majority have worked steadily together from the beginning of to-day's discussion until the final vote in defeating all propositions looking to compulsory redemption, or any proposition of any kind looking to an ultimate resumption of specie payments.

Wong Ching Foo is the euphoneous name of a citizen of Grand Rapids. He is the first Chinaman who has taken out naturalization papers and become a citizen of the United States. Although he has cut off his cue, the judges of election his precienct look with anxiety at the sleeves of his coat as he deposits his ballot.

Africanizing the South.

In Morengo county, Alabama, about five hundred blacks voted the Democratic ticket at the last State election. They out-number the white citizens of the county largely, but as they begin now to abandon the Republican party, when mere local issues are at stake, the Democrats hope before long to get control of the county government. Unfortunately for this scheme, the Democracy in other sections of the State insist with pig-headed perversity that the race issue shall be forced as a political question. The result is that the blacks have no recourse left but to return to the Republican ranks. While they admit that they cannot carry the State without the aid of black votes, the leaders of the Democracy seem to prefer everlasting defeat rather than submit to a recognition of the privileges of, and the political association with, the blacks. It must be apparent to them, as it is to the unprejudiced mind of those who view the case from a disinterested standpoint, that they deserve the infliction of the evils of which they complain. Trifling as those evils may be in fact, and magnified as they are in the extravagant phrase of the complainants, they could be avoided by harmonious efforts to conciliate the difference between the two races. The black vote in Marengo shows plainly that the blacks are not opposed to such efforts, and that they willingly accept offers of conciliation and honestly abide by their results. It shows, too, that the hue and cry raised by the opposition about "Africanizing the South" is mere bosh, as we have already asserted it to be.

The truth is that human nature is the same under a black skin as under a white one, and the black men of the South are prompted in their political action by the same influences or impulses that prompt their white fellow citizens. Their ignorance may sometimes serve to enable designing and reckless men to mislead them; but they have never failed since they began to exercise the rights of citizenship to instinctively seek the success of political measures which are calculated to preserve the integrity of those rights. In other words, the question of their citizenship being assured, they are as apt to vote with with the democrats as with the Republicans. In South Carolina, where the property holders are continually talking of and striving to obtain white immigration and foreign labor, the Africanizing process has developed its greatest success; but wherever the equality of both races before the law is assured, the idea is unheard of save as the utterance of fanatical malcontents.

The lesson of these facts must be obvious to all. It teaches us that, throughout the entire South, as in the District of Columbia, it is possible to secure good government, with its consequences of peace and prosperity, only when the animosities of race prejudice are buried. It is idle to waste sympathy upon those who refuse to learn this lesson. They deserve the fate their stupidity brings upon them.—Washington Republican.

The Newspaper Business in the South.

Colonel John Forsyth, writing of the experience of the Mobile Register, says that "the Southern people do not sustain their newspapers as it is their plain interest to do," whereupon, the Louisville Courier-Journal says: "This is true in a certain sense; and yet the fault is not altogether with the people. The newspapers of the South, as a class, do not seem to have realized the change which has come into the business and spirit of jounalism the last fifteen years. They lack not merely the enterprise, which is requisite to success, but the cool common sense adaptability, which, united to industry, care and thrift, have built up the great Northern journals. The typical Southern editor of the old school, which still influences the southern press, thought the people more interested in politics than in all other things. He consequently ignored everything for politics. The truth is, that, with a large majority of readers, politics is a secondary consideration. Current information, called news, stands first on the list of wants with the reading public. The rationale of this intelligence comes next, be it general or partisan, and hence the great newspapers of the world devote the better part of their editorial space to topics of domestic, financial, scientific, literary and social concern. The dreary waste of partisan platitude is abandoned for a more fruitful and extensive field of disquisition, and with its abandonment comes an increased audience of women and children, who now read the newspapers as eagerly as the men. It is this circumstance which has augmented the power of the press more than any of the many agencies that have elevated it from poverty to riches, from vassalage to independence. Colonel Forsyth complains with more justice when he speaks of the lack of advertising enterprise among Southern merchants.—The Southern merchant has yet to learn the same lesson in enterprise which wait on the Southern journalist. It is the opinion of a celebrated observer that the population of a city may be doubled within ten years by means of one distinguished, well conducted and widely circulated newspaper. The press of Chicago illustrates this notably. It has almost created Chicago. It has advertised its business broadcast, excited an interest in it, made attractive, caused it to be talked about, and constantly added to its population."

The Democratic majority, on joint ballot, in the next Legislature of Connecticut, will be fifty-four.

A Tale of the Sea.

Suffering and privation, with their attendant virtues of fortitude and heroism, are twice-told tales in connection with records of the sea. We cannot recall a Winter in which there have been more stories of maritime disaster to chronicle than the past one. The wreck of an ocean steamer and the loss of many lives becomes a public calamity, and stirs the feelings of the whole world. But the simple, almost common-place story of the bark Polly brings home to us in a vivid manner the strength of human endurance, and the force of those bonds of sympathy which unite mankind in the hour of danger and disaster.

The Polly was a wooden bark of 671 tons, built in Quebec in 1845. Of late years she had been engaged in carrying pitch-pine from Pensacola to Swansea, Wales. In September last she left Swansea with a crew of sixteen hands, all told. The voyage was speedy and uneventful. At Pensacola a cargo consisting of 830 loads of sawed pitch-pine was stowed away in the hold of the vessel, and on the 4th of December she started for home. Up to Christmas Day the weather was propitious. On Christmas morning the weather became rough, and toward noon a gale set in from the east. Before night came on, the gale had increased in terrific squalls which buried the ship's lee-rails under water. The ship was put before the wind, the pumps were sounded, and six feet of water found in the hold. All hands worked at the pumps during Christmas night, and nearly the whole of the next day. At 4 o'clock on the afternoon of 26th, the sails were blown away by a terrific hurricane. The heavy seas breaking over the ship prevented the men working at the pumps, and at length, finding that he was getting a water-logged ship, the Captain gave orders to cut away the masts. Heavy showers of rain fell. The men were now able to unlash themselves, and slaked their thirst by sucking the rain water from each other's clothes. Another search was made for food, and although it was known that an ample supply was on board, not even a biscuit could be obtained. On the morning of the 31st a vessel hove in sight. This afterward proved to be the Rosa B., an Italian bark. Signals of distress were made with torn pieces of canvas, and, with scarcely any hope of being seen, the seven poor wretches waited. The vessel slowly approached, and when within 300 yards of the wreck was about to change her course, when she observed the signals of distress for the first time. The broken masts, with seven almost lifeless forms clinging to them, were all that could be seen of the Polly. The Rosa B. immediately lowered a boat with a crew of six men and the first mate, leaving only the Captain and two boys to guard the ship. A heavy sea was running all this time; it was nightfall, and the water covered with broken spars and floating timber. The dangers encountered by the rescuers under these circumstances were enormous. Ten unsuccessful attempts were made to take off the sufferers before they were at last laid in the bottom of the boat and carried on board the Rosa B. The Italian sailors, though unable to speak the language of the survivors, treated them with great kindness, and when the latter arrived home they spoke of the gentleness, the courage, and devotion of their rescuers in glowing and affecting language. This little history was first made public at the Board of Trade inquiry a few weeks ago, and we are glad to say that, in addition to the eulogy passed upon the rescuers, the owners of the Polly gave them a sum of money as a deserved reward for their heroism and humanity.

TO THE WEST! TO THE WEST!

Before making your arrangements to follow the advice of the "thousands who have already gone," it would be well to consider what has been done to make the journey to your "Homes in the West" as pleasant and free from danger as human skill and foresight can accomplish.

By consolidation and construction, a road has been put into operation on the shortest possible line from Nashville, Tenn., to St. Louis, "the future great City of the world." This line, the has, during the past year, earned an enviable reputation by its smooth track, prompt time, sure connections, and the magnificence of its passenger equipment. Its trains are made up of new and commodious day cars, provided with the celebrated Miller coupler and platform, and the Westinghouse air-brake.

It is possitively the only line running Pullman Palace Drawing-Room Sleeping Cars through without change from Nashville to St. Louis. No other line pretends to offer such advantages, either in distance, time, or equipment. Why, then, journey by circuitous routes? Do not be induced to purchase tickets to St. Louis or the West by any other line, remember that is the shortest, cheapest, quickest, best and only line under one management from Nashville to St. Louis, and is from 60 to 200 miles the shortest to St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Denver, California, Texas, and all western points. It is also the "Chicago Shortest Line," via Evansville.

You can secure the cheapest rates for yourselves and your movables on application, in person or by letter, to C. S. BARRETT, Southern Passenger Agent, Postoffice Box 242, Chattanooga Tenn., or to the undersigned.

WHICH IS THE BEST!

Which is the best Sewing Machine, is a point on which different Companies differ, each, of course, thinks its own the best, but if the point were to be decided by popularity the Howe Machine would surpass all others. It is a noticeable fact that the Howe Company has

SIX HUNDRED THOUSAND

of their Machines in use although having existed but six years, while the Company which claims to have most in use, has only about twice that number, though having existed for twenty years. Until the year 1866, ELIAS HOWE, JR., the

did not manufacture, but was content with receiving the royalty which all Sewing Machine Manufacturers had to pay him for the use of his Patents. A sample of each Machine was sent to Mr. Howe before a license could be obtained. Constant study upon them enabled him to avoid the defects of each and improve upon the excellences of all. This fact explains the

to which Mr. Howe brought his latest pattern of Machine, without which advantages such a result could not have been achieved. These facts should be borne in mind by all who intend to purchase a Sewing Machine. As the purchase of a Machine may be the act of a lifetime with some, care should be taken to PURCHASE ONLY THE LATEST AND BEST.

W. D. Goodrich,

On Market Street Near Third,

WILMINGTON, N. C.,

offers the Howe Machine on such easy terms that no one need longer have an excuse for doing without a Sewing Machine.

☞ No pains or expense spared to give thorough satisfaction to every customer.

Prospectus for 1874—Seventh year

THE ALDINE

An Illustrated Monthly Journal, universally admitted to be Handsomest Periodical in the World. A Representative and Champion of American Taste.

Not for Sale in Book or Music Stores

THE ALDINE while issued with all the regularity, has none of the temporary or timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure, light and graceful literature; and a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it has been bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness, as compared with rivals of a similar class, THE ALDINE is a unique and original conception—alone and unapproached—absolutely without competition in price or character. The possessor of a complete volume cannot duplicate the quantity of fine paper and engravings in any other shape or number of volumes for ten times its cost; and then, there are the chromos, besides!

ART DEPARTMENT, 1874.

The illustrations of THE ALDINE have won a world-wide reputation, and in the art centres of Europe it is an admitted fact that its wood cuts are examples of the highest perfection ever attained. The common prejudice in favor of 'ssteel plates," is rapidly yielding to a more educated and discriminating taste which recognizes the advantages of superior artistic quality with greater facility of production. The woodcuts of THE ALDIFE possess all the delicacy and elaborate finish of the most costly steel plate, while they afford a better rendering of the artist's original.

To fully realize the wonderful work which THE ALDINE is doing for the cause of art culture in America, it is only necessary to consider the cost to the people of any other decent representations of the productions of great painters.

In addition to designs by the members of the National Academy, and other noted American artists, THE ALEINE will reproduce examples of the best foreign masters, selected with a view to the highest artistic success and greatest general interest. Thus the subscribers to THE ALLENE will at a trifling cost, enjoy in his own home the pleasure and refining influences of true art.

The quarterly tinted plates for 1874 will be by Thos. Moran and J. D. Woodward.

The Christmas issue for 1874 will contain special designs appropriate to the season, by our best artists, and willsurpass in attraction any of its predecessors.

PREMIUM FOR 1874.

Every subscriber to THE ALDINE for the year 1874 will receive a pair of chromos. The original pictures were painted in oil for the publishers of THE ALDINE, by Thomas Moran, whose great Colorado picture was purchased by Congress for ten thousand dollars. The subjects were chosen to represent "The East" and "The West," One is a view in the White Mountins New Hampshire the other gives the Cliffs, of Green River, Wyoming Territory. The difference in the nature of the scenes themselves in a pleasing contrast, and affords a good display of the artist's scope and coloring. The chromos are each worked from thirty distinct plates, and are in size (12 x 16) and appearance exact fac-similes of the originals. The presentation of a worthy example of America's greatest landscape painter to the subscribers of THE ALDINE was a bold but peculiarly happy idea, and its successful realization is attested by the following testimonial, over the signature of Mr Moran himself.

NEWARK, N.J., Sept 20th,

Messrs. JAMES SUTTON & Co.

Gentlemen,—I am delighted with proofs the color of your chromos. They wonderfully successful representation by mechanical process of the original paintings.

Very respectfully,

(Signed,) THOS. MORAN.

These chromos are in every sense American, They are by an original American process. with material of American manufacture. from designs of American scenery by an American painter, and presented to subscribers to the first successful American Art Journal. If no better because of all this they will certainly possess an interest no foreign production can inspire, and neither are they any the worse if by reason of peculiar facilities of production they cost the publishers only a trifle, while equal in every respect to other chromos that are sold singly for double the subscription price of THE ALDINE. Persons of taste will prize these pictures for themselves—not for the price they did or did not cost, and will appreciate the enterprise that renders their distribution possible.

If any subscribers should indicate a preference for a figure subject, the publishers will send "Thoughts of Home," a new and beautiful chromo, 14 x 20 inches, representing a little Italian exile whose speaking eyes betray the longings of his heart.

TERMS.

$5 per annum, in advance, with Oil Chromos free.

For 50 Cents Extra, the chromos will be sent, mounted, varnished, and prepaid by mail.

THE ALDINE will, hereafter, be obtainable only by subscription. There will be no reduced or club rate; cash for subscriptions must be sent to the publishers direct, or handed to the local canvasser, without responsiblity to the publishers, except in cases where the certificated is given, bearing the facsimile signature of JAMES SUTTON & Co.

CANVASSERS WANTED.

Any person wishing to act permanently as a local canvasser will receive full and prompt information by applying to

THE SUN,

—:o:—

WEEKLY, SEMI-WEEKLY, AND DAILY.

THE WEEKLY SUN is too widely known to require any extended recommendation, but the reasons which have already given it fifty thousand subscribers, and which will, we hope, give it many thousands more are briefly as follows,

It is a first rate newspaper. All the news of the day will be found in it, condensed when unimportant, at full length when o moment, and always presented in a clear intelligible, and interesting manner.

It is a first rate family paper, full of entertaining and instructive reading of every kind; but containing nothing that can offend the most delicate and scrupulous taste.

It is a first rate story paper. The best tales and romances of current literature are carefully selected and legibly printed in its pages.

It is a first rate agricultural paper. The most fresh and instructive articles on agricultural topics regularly appear in this department.

It is an independent political paper, belonging to no party and wearing no color.—It fights for principle, and for the election of the best men to office. It especially devotes its energies to the exposure of the great corruptions that now weaken and disgrace our country and threaten to undermine republican institutions altogether. It has no fear of knaves, and asks no favors from their supporters.

It reports the fashions for the ladies and the markets for the men, especially the cattle markets, to which it pays particular attention.

Finally, it is the cheapest paper pulished. One dollar a year will secure it for any subscriber. It is not necessary to get up a club in order to have THE WEEKLY SUN at this rate. Any one who sends a single dollar will get the paper for a year.

We have no traveling agents.

THE WEEKLY SUN.—Eight pages, fifty six columns. Only $1 00 a year. No discounts from this rule.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY SUN.—Same size as the Daily Sun. $2 00 a pear. A discount of 20 per cent. to clubs of 10 or over.

THE DAILY SUN.—A large four page newspaper of twenty eight columns. Daily circulation over 120,000. All the news for 2 cents. Subscription price 50 cents a month, or $6 00 a year. To clubs of 10 or over, a discount of 20 per cent. Address,
